The Chateau

Spa & Organic Wellness Resort

Nestled amidst a natural tropical rainforest on one of the least commercially developed mountain in Malaysia, The Chateau is the World's first spa and organic wellness resort offering the ultimate in health and wellbeing enrichment.

With its poised standards in offering a complete organic luxurious experience, The Chateau takes pride in bestowing guests with the finest yet most splendid array of organic elements. Everything from the food and beverage to the linens and room amenities would be organic. If it is not, it would be made out of bio degradable materials. This is in line with their strong advocacy on environmental protection which is clearly denoted in their very own tagline: "We have a heart for our planet".

The Chateau advocates progressive well being and embraces holistic ideas and relaxing principles that define one's eminent journey towards wellness. La Sante Organic Wellness Spa, the first destination spa in Asia embraces European spa ideology and technologies. The spa offers unprecedented European thermal facilities namely the Herbal Bath (herbs infused sauna), Salt Grotto or Mud Chamber and an Aquveda heated bed with automatic body exfoliation facilities. VOYA, the spa's exclusive product line consist of a revolutionary range of organic products certified by both the US Department of Agriculture (USDA) and the Soil Association that unleashes natural powerful resources for the benefit of maintaining and prolonging one's youthfulness.

The dining experience at The Chateau is nothing less than gastronomic that would tantalize the sharpest palate. L'Assiette, the Michelin standard French Fine Dining serves the best exquisite French cuisine. La Vie - an all day dining where one can savor an array of international selection. Belle Vue - the tea room, a perfect location for an afternoon tea with a breathtaking view on the terrace. For the lounge lovers, there is C'est Bon - lobby lounge and Salon - cigar lounge where a huge selection of organic and non organic wines, cocktails and the best selections of cigar are served.

Advocating a lifestyle approach to personal wellness, The Chateau is the ideal health retreat with unsurpassed standards that seals a guest promise to return.
