Exuding Natural Elegance

Sophistically designed with an old world charm, The Chateau is the world's first organic spa and wellness resort

State of the Art La Santé spa offers a wide range of enrichment packages, ranging from body slimming to revitalisation of health, nutritional consultation as well as fitness and wellness sessions

Modelled after a 12th century French castle, Haut Koenigsbourg in Alsace, The Chateau offers guests the chance to experience a beautiful fairy tale-like setting replete with modern amenities. Set among the gorgeous tropical rainforest at Berjaya Hills, guests will surely grasp a sense of nature as they embark on their wellness journey.

As the world's first organic spa and wellness resort, a high percentage of the features at the retreat are organically sourced, just as nature intended. At the La Santé spa, the crown jewel of The Chateau, visitors will enter a world of utter relaxation and serenity as they experience the best of European expertise coupled with world-renowned Asian hospitality.

Adopting the highest hospitality standards and the latest environmentally friendly technology and practices throughout the resort, patrons will be delighted to sample gastronomic dining at L'Assiette, a recent Seven Star Award winning fine dining restaurant that whips up French culinary delights with an emphasis on promoting well-being. Through its vision of constantly striving to provide excellence for its guests, The Chateau propels itself to the top as one of the finest resort destinations on the world stage. ■
